

Notice of Funding Availability – Justice Grants Administration

FY 2010 Justice Assistance Grant: Youth Violence Prevention

The District of Columbia Justice Grants Administration announces funds to support service programs that reduce youth violence throughout the District. Applicants will need to identify concrete numerical benchmarks for outcomes such as reducing the number violent incidents involving youth; reducing the number of youth involved in gangs and crews; and increasing the number of youth successfully engaged in pro-social activities. Applicants are also encouraged to propose evidence-based service strategies for youth violence prevention activities, and to include a formal evaluation component in their funding proposal.

Eligibility: Community-based organizations, District and Federal agencies that have the demonstrated abilities to meet the funding priorities, outputs, outcomes, and required activities identified in the Request for Applications (RFA), and who are able to commit to complying with all JGA financial, administrative, and programmatic regulations and expectations.

Deadline: 5 pm on Friday, November 6, 2009.

Funds: $600,000 is available to support up to two (2) awards

Information: the Request for Applications (RFA) will be available Friday, October 23, 2009. Information will be available at jga.oca.dc.gov under Notice of Funding Availability/Requests for Application.
